A note to parents...

*Bullying is defined as mean, hurtful behaviour that occurs repeatedly in a relationship with an imbalance of power or strength. This is different to ‘fall outs’ that occur within friendships.

We welcome and value your personal responses. Please turn over to add additional comments. Thank you in advance for your time; it is greatly appreciated.

Lovely environment which embraces the unique child. Thank you.

F loves school. She always has since she started in Reception. I am confident that she receives the best education, support and care here at St Winefride's – it is such a nurturing school. Thank you to all of the staff for the exceptional job that you do!

I am very happy with the contact between myself and St Winefride's. I am always kept up to date with events at the school and all other upcoming days. M is extremely happy at this school and has made many friends. Any problem that we have had are dealt with promptly. Many thanks to St Winefride's for being a fantastic school to both my girls; even myself!

I really am so happy with the school. It has an inclusive approach for each student. H loves coming to school. Staff are amazing.

Both my boys are very happy at the school. I feel that my family's religious beliefs are strongly supported, and I agree with the school's mission and ethos. There is a real community spirit that has a strong, positive effect on my family as a whole. Thank you to the whole team for all that you do!

N and E love school and always feel valued, important, and listened to. All grades of staff are caring, attentive and want my children to be the best version of them. No complaints, but if I had, I am more than confident that Mrs Davies would listen.

Amazing school. Can't wait for my son to start.

O is doing so well at St Winefride's. Brilliant school.

F has settled into Reception better than I expected. That's down to Mr Shipton and Mrs Edwards. F is thoroughly enjoying school and his learning.

G has settled into school life really well. He enjoys it and in the short time he's been in Reception he has learned so much and dearly enjoys learning. Thank you.

P and I have both settled well in years 2 and 5. They are happy and settled with their learning. The communication from school is excellent. We are always kept up to date with information and events.

Good school. Nice atmosphere. Positive thinking staff = positive thinking children. School recognises children's achievements.

Z is thriving in this positive, nurturing and challenging environment. She is especially enthused by the core values being explored – noticing them everywhere she goes and within her own behaviour! She loves all of the staff and feels she is safe, loved and supported. I feel the same as a parent – everyone is very welcoming, and staff go above and beyond in supporting us as a family. Z's academic progress is well reported and communicated. I know what she is learning and how I can help her in improving her understanding in all of her subjects; we receive regular communication regarding the curriculum, events and life of the school. Z has chosen to make her Holy Communion in St. Winefride's parish this year – a reflection of how much she feels 'at home' with this community. Her faith, learning and well-being are all enriched here. Thank you to everyone at St. Winefride's for their hard work and dedication, it really is a very special place to be.
